

Challenge

With a clearly defined business strategy, how do organizations best align scarce resources to the projects to implement the strategy? How do you pinpoint critical talent for future success, while retaining the ability to change and adapt to shifting drivers?

With an extensive portfolio of consumer customers, SME and Corporate businesses, Telecoms Providers are making inroads into new and relevant areas such as financial services, mobile advertising, broadband and Machine to Machine (M2M) and have ambitious plans to grow.

Success has been born out of innovation, and key to the innovative spirit are not only the people who work for the Telecoms Provider but also the company with whom they Partner.

Rise to the Challenge

Organisations and their teams must be prepared to Telecoms are looking to Partners to provide the resources with highly specialized skills and expertise in order that they are able to become increasingly effective in their target markets while generating more value through business innovation.

How we Assist

PLC Partners work together with your management to identify and provide the optimum solution team.

We offers premium quality telecoms industry experts. We supply the full range of skills required together with a highly competent management team. extensive mobile telecommunications management experience.

Case Study: O2 Ireland

O2 Ireland is a leading provider of mobile telecommunications services in Ireland. PLC Partners provides the telecommunications engineering team to manage O2 Ireland's core network. PLC Partners exclusively provide O2 Ireland with a qualified team of resources to work primarily operate and maintain their Nortel network. The team covers the circuit, packet, signaling, interconnect and supporting IP network.

Benefits

PLC Partners enable our clients to become increasingly effective in their target markets while generating more value through business innovation.